SHOWERS EXPECTED TO-DAY. Lower Temperature May Follow Cooling Rains To-Night.

Showers are expected some time to-day and the temperature may drop a few de-grees as a result. Yesterday the mercury grees as a result. Yesterday the mercury rose to % degrees, one degree higher than the day before. There was a good breeze most of the day and the heat was not greatly felt.

Doctor Hyatt says he should be sorry to disappoint those expecting to visit the summer gardens this afternoon, and will try and hold the rain off until night; no great change in temperature is in sight.

ANTHONYS SEE THE PRESIDENT.

ANTHONYS SEE THE PRESIDENT. Complication in Kansas Senatorial Fight Explained by Republicans.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, June 14—The Kansas senatorial fight is more or less mixed up, according to an interview President Roosevelt had to-day with Colonel D. R. Anthony, editor of the Leavenworth Times, and his son, D. R. Anthony, Jr., Postmaster at Leavenworth. The two Anthonys were presented to the President by Representatives Long and Scott, and the President listened to the junior Anthony talk about his candidacy for retention as Postmaster another four years, despite the opposition of Representative Curtis.

Representative Curtis.

Representative Curtis and Long are the leading candidates for the Senate, to succeed Senator Harris (Dem.), whose term expires in March 1803. Leavenworth is in Mr. Curtis's district, and he has been accustomed to naming the Postmaster of that city. The two Anthonys, at the recent Kansas State Covention, supported ex-Representative Balley for the gubernatorial nomination and thereby arraigned themselves in the anti-Curtis senatorial camp.

The elder Anthony was chairman of the REPUBLIC SPECIAL, themselves in the anti-Curtis senatorial camp.

The elder Anthony was chairman of the Committee on Resolutions that reported the resolutions of praise for President Roosevelt. He is a brother of Miss Susan B. Anthony, and was one of Lincoln's guards in the White House the night after Fort Sumter was fired upon.

Mr. Curtis and his friends were displeased with what had been done, and the former indorsed Fred W. Willard for Postmaster at Leavenworth. Mr. Willard is Representative Curtis's political manager and friend, and is said to be a capable and friend, and is said to be a capable and shrewd man. Representative Long has so far taken no part in the Post Office fight, except to introduce the two Anthonys, but his sympathy is no doubt with them. The his sympathy is no doubt with them. The settlement of the fight will be watched with interest.

The Food of the Roman Soldier.

The grand old Roman warriors who won many victories subsisted chiefly on whent carried in their knapsacks and parched when needed for use. The healthfulness of wheat as a food has been greatly depreciated by modern milling processes that removed the life-sustaining gluten in order to make flour white. Many seek to remedy this evil by eating cracked wheat or mush. In this form the starch is less than haif cooked. The result is indigestion, anemia, constipation, nervous prostration, weak muscles, rheumatism and other maiadies. For complete nutrition, the whole grain must be eaten. Toasted Wheat Flakes, sweetened with Malt Honey, presents wheat in an entirely new form, each entire kernel being pressed into a thin, delicate flake, thoroughly dextrinized, cooked and toasted, making it immediately digestible.
